HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

December 9, 1915.

Diastuff—cheap liquor.

From Germany's viewpoint; the All-lies.

The National Security League played safe when it stuck to Wilson.

Anything seems to go in some of our movies.

There will be a wide difference in the skirts of next Spring.

"Serbs offer stern resistance." Rear guard action, so to speak.

"Coppers are scarce in Paris." Lots of 'em over here.

Judging from Henderson County's recent showing, to marry in haste is to court divorce.

As a possible successor to Booker Washington the papers are singing the praise of Carroll.

While always up in the air, the people of Hendersonville are never flighty.

Hickory society item: "Tea was poured in the parlor." That isn't where we generally pour ours.

Bulgaria is asking for the Red Cross. Wouldn't the double cross be more appropriate?

"The heart of a woman craves adornment." Bet a bit her fingers crave it more.

What's in a name? The foot ball team of the University of Washington is unbeaten in eight years.

Baron Ashii says: "Japan does not intend to risk a check." Quite right. Baron. Mere scraps of paper are in bed nowadays.

The fellow who tries to put over a barrel of beer on our own Chief is surely brewing trouble.

The Allies charge that Germany is making it Poland in fact as well as in name.

News item: "Mr. Doggett's Ford turned on its side." The critters do sometimes do a on the job.

The citizens of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., are all aglow over the prospects of soon having electric lights.

Another recruit may soon be added to the British army. He is to let 'em know next week.

Joe Mandot, the New Orleans boxer, backed out of a bout a few nights ago because of a cold. Cold feet?

"Ash piles tell tales," reads an ad. Unquestionably, when flanked by empty glasses.

Farm demonstrator Perkins to Burke county farmers: "You scratch too much." Gently, brother. Maybe There's a Reason.

The leader in the Bryson City popularity contest, Miss Clover Meadows, presents an inviting field for votes.

"These hats have given our customers satisfaction for fifteen years," boasts a salesman. Some lids, we must admit.

"Our notion of the Christmas spirit is eggnog."—Columbia State, Not ours. The officers up here have about succeeded in putting "no" in nog.

Even though he does not "dip" it is a safe bet that hereafter Solicitor Schenck will be up to snuff.

Pitt county, we are told, is making rapid strides. Good. But mind your steps, or you may land in a hole.

"Col. Sage first gave the order to fire across the border." Wise old boy. The Greasers understand that kind of talk.

It having been established that Edison first used the word "hello" over the phone, it now remains to find the culprit who first reversed that little word.

Winston women are very much aroused over the exposure in windows of "saw dust ladies' legs and busts." Why discriminate against the saw dust ladies?

"Andrew Carnegie is now a man of moderate means." Possibly so, but it all depends on what moderate means.

To increase church attendance the Asheville Citizen suggests the ringing of church bells. Will the clang of the bell prove more alluring than the bang of the horn?

Our hats off to Mrs. Gover. That 50c spread was better than many at $2 per cover.

In outlining possible national legislation, Congressman Webb puts the suffrage question after the liquor question. Properly so. The women will always be after liquor until they drive the stuff out.

Mt. Zion, N. C., correspondence to The Canton Observer: "Hugh Best gave a corn husking, but on account of his lady friends being absent, he pretty raw.

MORTGAGE SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of Trust executed to the undersigned, trustee, by S. J. Sumner and wife Carrie Sumner, to secure the indebtedness therein named, and default having been made in the payment of both principal and interest, I will at the request of the sectuy que trust and holder of the note secured by said deed of trust, sell to the highest bidder, for cash at the court house door in the city of Hendersonville on Saturday the 8th day of January 1916, to satisfy said debt, interest and costs, all the following described piece, parcel or tract of land lying and being in the township of Eoneville, county of Henderson and State of North Carolina, on the waters of Hickory Nut Creek.

Beginning at a black oak near the county line and running with said line South 16 degrees east eighty-eight poles to a black oak thence with said line South 40 degrees west sixty-six poles to a Hickory, thence south forty degrees east forty poles to a stone and pointers, thence North 37 degrees east thirty-eight poles to a red oak, thence North 81 degrees east forty-six poles to a white oak on Green's line thence with said line North four degrees east twenty-four poles to a Spanish oak corner, thence with his line south sixty-five degrees east forty poles to three sour woods, thence North 10 degrees east one hundred and twenty-four poles to a Locust, thence North 74 degrees west one hundred and twenty-two poles to a stake in the county line, thence with said line to the beginning, containing one hundred and seven acres more or less.

This being the same land as described in a deed from Rachel Sumner to S. J. Sumner by deed dated April the 12th 1893, and recorded in Book 20 page 70 of Henderson County records for deeds. Also the same land conveyed by A. L. Richardson and wife Ella Richardson to S. J. Sumner by deed dated the 20th day of February, 1901, and recorded in deed book 42 at page 196 of the Henderson County records, and being the home place of the said S. J. Sumner.

The deed of trust under which this sale is to be made is dated June 6th, 1912, and recorded in Book 35 at page 47 of the records for deeds of trust and mortgages for Henderson County.

This December 6th, 1915.
E. W. EWBANK, Trustee.

Fire Insurance Doesn't Prevent

FIRE!

But protects you against a catastrophe that strikes one insured man out of thirty. The company offering that protection must be investigated. Does it pay its claims fairly, cheerfully, without quibble and without attempting to get out of an honest obligation?

The old reliable HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO. offers that kind of service. Its policy is an honorable intention and it has the ability to carry out that intention. A clean record through one hundred and four years is proof of that statement. WE REPRESENT THE HARTFORD together with the other STRONGEST COMPANIES IN THE WORLD! Why not let us write your insurance. A policy in one of these STRONG COMPANIES cost no more than any other.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

We wish to say to our friends and patrons that we are compelled by law to treat them all exactly alike, without any discrimination in favor of one or against another.

This fact compels us to say that from and after December 1st, 1915, the date for allowing your discount will be strictly adhered to and unless your bill is paid at our office or check to cover same is in the Postoffice by the night of the 10th of each month, so it will reach us by 9 o'clock the morning of the 11th we can not and therefore will not allow the discount.

It would be discrimination to allow the discount after the 10th, so don't ask us to do so, and thus save us the embarrassment of refusing, because we most positively must and will refuse.

Again, we wish to say that only under extreme conditions will we carry over accounts from month to month. This means that if you fail to pay your account by the 10th it will be due gross by the 15th and if not so paid by that night, service will be discontinued.

Respectfully
